

Norwescap Child & Family Resource Services present:

When Creative Play, Social, and Emotional Development Meet

Supporting Emotional Growth Through Imagination and Connection

Explore how creative play builds emotional growth and positive peer interactions in early childhood settings.

In this session, you'll learn:

- How dramatic play, storytelling, and open-ended materials nurture social-emotional skills like empathy, self-regulation, and cooperation
- Practical strategies to guide play with intention
- Activity ideas to support inclusive emotional expression and social development
